Greetings Sorors of the Blazing Southwest Region,

A special thank you to Southwest Regional Director, Crystal T. Barker, Southwest Regional Representative, Aniecia Browning, and to the Dallas Alumnae Chapter for hosting this stop of the 2022-2023 Delta Authors on Tour.

How refreshing it is to be able to gather to celebrate the literary works of those within our sisterhood. This occasion shines the light on creativity and expertise that may have otherwise gone unnoticed. In honoring these authors, we honor the power of the written word, and its ability to heal, strengthen, entertain, inform and inspire.

Sorors, the Delta Authors on Tour initiative continues to be a vital catalyst for supporting and spotlighting our own. We encourage you to purchase books from our authors, and please ask your friends and family to do the same. There is power in numbers!

I am grateful for your support of this national program, and I salute all of those who worked so diligently to bring this opportunity to fruition. Together, let's continue to elevate the impact of our soror authors.

Welcome! Welcome! Welcome!

As The National Arts and Letters Commission celebrates its 50th Anniversary in this year, what better way to support the literary arts than to kick-off the 2022-2023 Season of Delta Authors on Tour (DAOT). It is an honor to expose the world to stories penned by sisters of our illustrious organization, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated.

We are excited to invite you on this journey as we continue to promote black women authors, increase literacy, and subsequently improve our economy by supporting the works that Delta authors have created. And this year, you get to attend each tour stop in person! From the North, South, East and West, each stop spans across Delta's seven regions where you have the opportunity to purchase books for yourself, family and friends of all ages! This is a national initiative that will benefit the entire community.

We extend a heartfelt THANK YOU to our regional leadership teams for saying "yes" to DAOT; To our 50+ authors for sharing your literary gifts; To the hard-working Host Chapters for providing the venue and planning such a fun and creative environment; And to all of you, our sorors, for your unwavering support. We are certainly better together and it is the unity of our sisterhood that allows us to make this happen.

Let's get this eighth season of Delta Authors on Tour started...and let the Reading Begin!

Yours In Delta,

Mary C. Baker

Sorors and Friends,

On behalf of Southwest Regional Representative Aniecia Browning, and sorors across the Blazing Southwest Region, I am honored to welcome the 2022-23 Delta Authors on Tour to Dallas, Texas.

Throughout the sorority's history, Deltas have been proud to promote African American art and culture on the national stage and in our chapters. In many ways, art is both the lifeblood and the fruit of a vibrant community. We express the full range of emotions and preserve our identity and heritage for future generations through the art of our people. Delta Authors on Tour was developed by the National Arts and Letters Commission to feature our own sisters for their literary contributions. We celebrate their talent and honor their commitment to the arts.

I extend our heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Andrea Hilburn, President, and the members of the Dallas Alumnae Chapter for all you do to make a difference in your community, and specifically, for hosting this stop on our Delta Authors on Tour.

Thank you for the support of this tour, and for your investment in advancing the literary art of Delta women as a vital component of American culture.

Believe and Love,

Crystal T. Barker

Greetings,

It is my honor to welcome you to the Last Stop on the Delta Authors on Tour Event for the 2022-23 Sorority year. The Leadership of the Blazing Southwest Region, and the Dallas Alumnae Chapter look forward to seeing you all. We are excited about the fantastic list of artists we have assembled this year with wonderful books representing all genres. This is also a milestone year for the Sisterhood as The National Arts and Letters Commission celebrates its 50th Anniversary. Fifty years of educating and highlighting our communities' contributions to the arts. As we continue our mission to promote black women authors, increase literacy, and subsequently improve our economy by supporting the works that delta authors continue to produce.

Thank you to the Dallas Alumnae Chapter under the leadership of Dr. Andrea Hilburn for hosting this event. Thanks also to the Arts and Letters Committee Chair Soror Joann Brunson along with her event chair, C. Rena Thomas, and the other members of the A&L Committee who have been hard at work planning this great event. We hope to see Sorors, their families and friends from all parts of the Blazing Southwest Region buying books, fellow-shipping, and supporting this worthwhile cause.

Yours In Delta,

Genine L. Perez

Greetings and welcome to Dallas, home of Founder Frederica Chase Dodd.

On behalf of the Dallas Alumnae Chapter and in honor of our beloved Founder Dodd, I thank you for joining us for the Southwest Region and final Season 8 stop of Delta Authors on Tour. We are thrilled to host this exciting literary event and introduce our talented Sorors to our friends and family in the Southwest Region.

Many thanks to Dallas Mayor Eric Johnson and the City of Dallas Office of Arts and Culture for partnering with us to sponsor this activity at the lovely Latino Cultural Center in the heart of Dallas. We are grateful for your continued support.

To our beloved Sorors Dr. Terri Major-Kincade, Victoria Christopher Murray, Terysa Ridgeway, Sheretta West, Brenda A. White and our chapter Soror, Dr. Jennifer Wimbish, thank you for your dedication to your craft and sharing your time and talents with us. We are so appreciative of your commitment to improving our communities.

As our public motto states: "Intelligence is the Torch of Wisdom", and in the Southwest Region, our torches are BLAZING into literary brilliance. Thank you for joining us and sharing the joy of reading.

Sincerely,

Dr. Andrea Hilburn

Greetings Sorors, Friends and Guests,

Thank you for joining the Dallas Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. as we host the Southwest Region and final stop for the 2023 Delta Authors on Tour. We are so excited to share the literary brilliance of our Sorors as we promote the joy of reading and encourage positively impactful economic experiences.

Whether your presence is for personal reading, building literary opportunities for others, or advancing the economies of our authors, we are grateful for your presence. Please review the works of these brilliant women: Dr. Terri Majors-Kincade, Victoria Christopher Murray, Terysa Ridgeway, Sheretta West, Brenda A. White and our chapter Soror, Dr. Jennifer Wimbish, to find everything from inspirational fiction to self help to skills development to children's works and encourage yourself and others through their words.

Our order forms will be available from May 3 until midnight June 3 to purchase books for yourself, friends, or to donate to your local libraries or charities.

We appreciate your support!

Greetings,

It's both an honor and a privilege to welcome you to Dallas for the National Commission on Arts & Letters' Delta Authors on Tour, Saturday, June 3, at the Latino Cultural Center in Dallas.

I'm excited that my own Dallas Alumna Chapter will host the author tour for the Southwest Region, and overjoyed we are doing so during the 50th Anniversary of the commission's genesis. We look forward to hearing from the six Delta authors who will be featured and learning more about their respective literary works.

What an incredible vision former National President Lillian Benbow had for the arts when the commission was created in 1973. In its half century of existence, the commission continues to fulfill its purpose: expanding its vision to bring art and cultural programs to its nationwide membership and cultivating attention to the contributions by African Americans in the arts.

In service,

Toni Rose
State Representative
District 110

MAYOR OF DALLAS

June 3, 2023

Greetings!

As Mayor of Dallas, I want to personally welcome the attendees of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.'s Authors on Tour Event.

I know you will enjoy Dallas and find yourselves taken by our city's hospitality. Dallas is the heart and economic engine of the fourth-largest metropolitan area in the nation, and the No. 1 visitor destination in Texas. We are home to over 1.3 million Texans and represent a wonderful place to live, work, and visit.

While you are here, I encourage you to experience all that we have to offer – world-class dining, incredible outdoor attractions, and an amazing Arts District that is ranked as one of our nation's very best.

I hope you have a memorable and fun time in Dallas.

All my best,

Eric Johnson
Mayor

June 2, 2023

Dear Arts Supporters:

As Director of the Office of Arts and Culture, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the City of Dallas. Dallas is a vibrant city, and it brings me great pride that you are hosting your event at our Latino Cultural Center.

I encourage those of you visiting Dallas to experience all the things that make Dallas one of the fastest growing, most business-friendly and quality of life-centered cities in our nation.

Underneath our beautiful skyline that has expanded in just the last few years, our dynamic bustling downtown is alive with fine dining, exciting night life, fabulous shopping, outdoor activities, professional sports, beautiful parks and my personal favorite --- a diverse and inclusive arts and culture scene.

The many distinctive neighborhoods are so vibrant. I invite you to walk our safe streets, visit our arts district and our illustrious cultural districts across the city.

Again, welcome to Dallas! We are happy to have you here and hope you enjoy taking part in the wonderful experiences that are unique to our city.

Best wishes for a productive book tour and continued success. I hope you enjoy your time here and visit Dallas again soon.

With Gratitude,

Good day Sorors, Friends and Supporters!

I was elated to hear that Dallas, Texas had been selected as a stop for the 2023 DELTA AUTHORS ON TOUR (DAOT)! As the current Chair of the Arts and Culture Advisory Commission for the City of Dallas and a Past President of the host chapter, I am committed to doing an extra push to make your stop worthwhile!

Not only did Delta Sigma Theta Founder Frederica Chase Dodd claim Dallas as her hometown, we also have a noted arts and culture presence which is second to none. We are grateful to the Latino Cultural Center who is partnering with the historic Dallas Alumnae Chapter to provide an exemplary venue for your project.

If your time is flexible, we invite you to stay a few extra days to experience firsthand some of the art exhibits, public art, in-person performances and other innovative offerings which make our city unique.

Stay healthy, stay safe and continue to support the arts!

Sincerely,

Ella Goode Johnson

Terysa Ridgeway

Terysa Ridgeway is a Technical Program Manager at Google and holds Computer Science and Mathematics degrees from Southern University and A&M College and is nearing completion of Stanford University's LEAD Executive Education program. She has extensive experience in solving complex business and technical problems as both a Software Engineer and a Program Manager; leading a number of initiatives in the Healthcare, Aerospace, and Aeronautics industries.

Terysa is actively involved in educational programs, with a focus on STEM, that empowers youth in her local community. She takes great pride in giving back as a STEM advocate and mentor to afford youth from rural areas educational opportunities that would otherwise only be available to those in larger cities. She has received recognition professionally from Governor John Bel Edwards, Senator Clay Higgins, and Mayor President Joel Robideaux for her efforts to introduce STEM to youth from underprivileged backgrounds.

In addition to Terysa's STEM contributions her humanitarian efforts can also be felt both locally and globally. She is the recipient of keys to three Louisiana cities: Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Opelousas, Louisiana; Sunset, Louisiana. Her hometown, Sunset, also issued an official proclamation on March 24th to honor her accomplishments and civic contributions annually. Her spirit of helping others in need has also made a huge impact globally, as Terysa was officially appointed as one of the United States Goodwill Ambassadors – by President Yahya Jammeh, the President of the Republic of The Gambia, the 3rd poorest country in Africa.

THINK LIKE A COMPUTER

On June 3rd, Delta Authors on Tour will welcome Computer Scientist + Author Terysa Ridgeway. Her books, Think Like A Computer and To The Moon, introduce children to Computer Science through engaging narratives.

Both Books are available for presale through the order form below and may also be purchased through the website at www.terysasolvesit.com, be sure to select Delta Authors on Tour at checkout. You may also pay by cash or check using the order form below.

Eight-year-old Terysa loves to solve problems. Give her some time and she'll figure out how to solve anything.

So when Terysa is given an older computer for her birthday, she faces her biggest challenge yet: Can she make it talk?

Terysa is full of good ideas, but will any of them work, or does she need to change her approach and think less like a human and think more like a computer?

This fun and interactive story introduces children to the basics of coding through an engaging narrative based on the true story of a little girl who loves to solve problems!

By the end of the book, parents and teachers will have a guide for nurturing early problem solving skills and encouraging healthy curiosity all while simultaneously introducing young girls to Computer Science.

Brenda A. White

Brenda A. White is an Author, Certified Coach, Speaker, and Trainer. She is the Founder of Choices Within, LLC, a leadership, coaching, and team-development organization offering services that change how serious individuals approach self-improvement and empowerment. Brenda specializes in individual improvement for personal and business growth. She believes in focused living and the importance of personal goal-setting and action plans.

She developed a love of reading and a desire to write in her early teenage years. Through faith and discipline, she explored her options and then executed the plan to put the stories on paper. Subsequently, her debut novel, "The Best I Have to Offer," was born in 2010. Her sophomore novel, "The Final Offer," was released in June 2015. Her novels are humorous and drama-filled love stories of bringing your complete self into a relationship while being pruned through joy, pain, and adversity. Her short story, "Not Daddy's Girl," contributed to the anthology, The Ex Chronicles. It was released in 2016 by Brown Girls Books, made the best-sellers list several times, and received The Best Short Story of the Year Award from the African American Literary Awards. She has coached countless professionals to navigate their careers, so much so that she deemed it necessary to share her experiences, thoughts, and questions in her first non-fiction book and action journal, "Why Not Keep Up with the Joneses... behaving your way to success."

She has received a Proclamation from the City of Houston, Certificates of Congressional Recognition, and various awards for her literary work and her service in the community. Brenda has impacted the lives of countless individuals throughout her career, church, and work as an active Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated member.

Thank you for supporting Delta Authors and thank you for supporting my work. I enjoy writing books to teach, inspire, empower, and entertain. I also enjoy journaling my thoughts, prayers, dreams, and goals. I am grateful for the opportunity to share with you and I pray that my writing inspires you to walk in the path God designed only for you. - Brenda A. White

We thank these chapters in advance for their hard work in organizing exciting programs for our Delta authors. They have answered the call to support our Delta authors, and the National Arts and Letters Commission is pleased to collectively introduce them to you. The authors in this directory are excited and want to visit your chapters. When inviting authors, the books should fit into your chapter's areas of interest.

If you need information on any of these tour stops please contact our staff liaison Mariah Crews (artsandletters@deltasigmamatheta.org). In addition, we encourage chapters that are interested in hosting future tours to contact Headquarters with your request and to receive the hosting guidelines. Please note, all requests must be made by the chapter president.
